

General Information

Hayride wagons are pulled by a tractor and are loaded with hay bales. Each reservation includes a 45-minute to one-hour hayride which concludes with a one-hour campfire, where apple cider and marshmallows await. Due to other scheduled hayrides, total time including campsite time cannot extend past two hours.

Hayride Features

With fall's cool breezes not far off, it's time to make arrangements for the hayride season!

- 45-minute to one-hour hayride
- One-hour campfire
- Apple cider and marshmallows
- Cups and roasting sticks

“When we scheduled our family hayride, my mom was planning to skip the ride-part and just wait for us at the campfire. But when we arrived they had a portable set of stairs to help us enter the wagon. The steps and safety rail made it easier for mom to get in the wagon, allowing her to join us. And oh, we had such a wonderful time! Thank you for your attention to detail.”
