

SPECIAL USE PERMITS

Amplified Sound Permit

- “Amplified Sound” involves the use of any amplification equipment such as is used by a disc jockey.
- “Acoustic” music (which requires no amplification) is allowed in all JCPRD parks.
- “Amplified Live Music” (any musical group requiring amplification) is restricted to The Theatre in the Park, TimberRidge Adventure Center, and Mildale Farm. The request for a rental contract must be made directly with those facilities.

Amusement Permit

- Issued, or noted on a shelter reservation form, for any type of amusement brought into the park, such as pony shows, inflatables, i.e. moonwalks, inflatable slides, obstacle courses, balloon toss games (biodegradable balloons only), piñatas, etc.

Note: Egg toss and dunk tanks are not allowed on JCPRD properties.

Commercial Use Permit

- Required for photos or video in a JCPRD park or facility that are being used for anything other than for personal or educational use including, but not limited to, organizational training films, music videos, photos/video for websites, calendars (other than personal), etc. There shall be no exchange of money within park boundaries. A permit must be acquired to ensure proper fees have been paid.
- A permit is not required for the following:
 - Photographers taking senior class pictures, family photos, wedding photos/videos, or photography/video for educational or personal use.

GROUP Model Rocket Permit

- Issued to a group of 10 or more, such as Boy/Girl Scouts, church groups, and schools interested in bringing a “group” of 10 or more people into the park to discharge model rockets on a specific date.
- An “Individual” launch permit is issued at the Antioch Park and Shawnee Mission Park administration offices and is good through December 31 of the year it is issued.

Special Event Permit

- Events such as charity walks/runs or large group activities. An Application must be completed and submitted to the Parks & Golf Courses Division.

Special Use Permit

- Any activity in a JCPRD park other than the “normal” use of park space for picnics, swimming, boating, disc golf, biking, hiking, etc. that do not include any other type of permit. This would include, but not be limited to, requests to exceed recommended shelter capacity, tethering or launching of hot air balloons, and weddings involving use of park space only (no shelter) and/or involving unusual activities, such as the bride riding in on a horse.
