COLLECTION DESCRIPTION

The McAnany Family Papers document a family history. The McAnany family is a Johnson County family; and it’s patriarch a Civil War veteran and land owner. Patrick McAnany (d. 1920) moved to Johnson County in 1854. He served in the Civil War, on the Union side, in 1861. He married Helen Winifred Mansfield (d. 1937) in 1869 and had 11 children. Patrick McAnany and his family lived at the Bluejacket-Choteau House in Shawnee, renamed “The Groves.”⁶⁰ The McAnany Family papers include four series; a correspondence, research (book related) correspondence, book distribution correspondence, and rough draft and notes.

⁴⁷ McAnany, Patrick D. Conflicting information: [photo caption] Although somewhat ravished by time, this former home of Frederic Choteau, member of the famous family of early day traders, still remains largely as it was in the days before the Civil War. . . The house now is owned by the McAnany estate. A stone addition, a portion of which may be seen above the roof of the original house, was added when it was the McAnany homestead. The huge fireplaces at either end of the building still remain as they were a century ago. “Century-Old Homes Still Serve” Sunday Picture Journal July 21, 1940

Series 1, Correspondence (1885-1980), contains personal correspondence between family members. The bulk of the correspondence is from the early generation dating 1885-1941. The series contains correspondence between parents, children, and siblings; trip descriptions, postcards, and other general family information. There are a number of enclosures dealing with the children's college careers (specifically Edwin S. McAnany at St. Benedictine College.) Of interest are several letters authored by Edwin recounting mischiefs at college to his parents. The later letters dating from 1978-1980 are contained in a folder titled, "McAnany, Edwin J.", who is both the author and recipient of them. The folders are organized alphabetically by author and then chronologically within. Special Note--Many of the letters are xerox copies, not originals.

Series 2, Research Correspondence contains correspondence, newspaper articles, and enclosures from Edwin J. McAnany and members of his family dealing with the genealogy and history of the earlier McAnany generations. The material dates from 1871-1980. Most of the older material is xeroxed, but there are several original newspaper clippings. The folders are organized by subject, alphabetically; and then chronologically within.

Series 3, Book Distribution Correspondence series contains correspondence and contact information related to the distribution of Edwin J. McAnany's book, Patrick McAnany; American Pioneer and His Family. The materials are dated 1979-1980.

Series 4, Rough Draft and Notes series contains a rough draft of Edwin J. McAnany's book, receipts, family trees, and 2 copy photographs of Patrick and Helen McAnany. The book, titled, Patrick McAnany; American Pioneer and His Family, was published in 1980. It describes the lives of Patrick McAnany, his descendants, and includes copies of several early letters.

Series 5, Photographs

Two photographs, copy prints of a portrait of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McAnany, are filed in photograph collection storage.
