Program Description

Johnson County Park and Recreation District is committed to providing families with quality Pre-K programs at an affordable cost. Our staff is dedicated to providing children with what they need: a safe, enriching, and fun place to be. Each program site values the unique nature of children by offering a variety of group and self-selected activities. Choices offered will include environmental literacy and healthy lifestyle development. The foundation affords endless SEL (social emotional learning) and HEPA (healthy eating and physical activity). Our caring and qualified staff provide a relaxed and supportive environment that optimizes child participation and makes learning fun!

Fully licensed by the Kansas Department of Health and Environment, our programs maintain a 1:12 staff to child ratio. Our site program directors possess bachelor's degrees from accredited colleges and universities. Their advanced education allows directors and their staff to plan a wide variety of interesting and age appropriate activities including science experiments, cooking, health, fitness, environmental education and recreation.

JOHNSON COUNTY
PARK & RECREATION DISTRICT
PRE-K ENRICHMENT
PARENT POLICY STATEMENT

MISSION STATEMENT

Developing health and happiness in our community's children through safe, diverse, and character-building experiences.

1. EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

Johnson County Park and Recreation District does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, religion, age, ancestry, or handicapped status in the provision of service or employment.

2. CONFIDENTIALITY STATEMENT

All contents of children's files including health history, medication form, emergency medical release, personal data sheet, correspondence from parents, IEP, incident reports, and staff generated correspondence are confidential documents. File contents cannot be duplicated, distributed, discussed, and/or viewed by anyone other than the custodial parent/ guardian, program staff, law enforcement officers, KDHE designee, and emergency medical personnel. Custodial parent/guardian reserves the right to make their children's records available to designated parties through signed permission. Documents can be released only to custodial parent/ guardian and DCF child protection agency representatives. Release under any circumstances must be mandated by court order. Children's records will remain on file at the program until enrollment is terminated and the file is returned to the custodial parent/guardian.

3. REQUIRED FORMS

Kansas State law requires all children to have a personal data sheet, health assessment, and authorization for emergency medical care on file at the center before attendance is permitted. Kansas Department of Health & Environment (KDHE) is stringently enforcing this regulation. Centers can be fined and even closed for non-compliance. Therefore, all forms must be submitted to our office two-weeks prior to the first week of care. Children with incomplete records cannot attend the program. The health assessment must be fully completed on the attached KDHE form and signed by Doctor of Medicine or other approved personnel.

4. REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS

Children attending the program must be pre-registered in advance of attendance by submitting the above forms and paying the $50.00 registration fee. The registration fee will not apply to the weekly tuition.

5. TERMS OF CARE

Attendance days must be pre-selected and consistent. Enrollment is tuition-based; therefore, weekly payments will not be prorated for holidays or shortened weeks, as the fees are based on the overall cost of the program, not week-to-week expenses. One-week advance notice is required if discontinuing care. A $15 change fee will be assessed for each change in program options. Weekly tuition payments, as well as outstanding fees from other JCPRD programs, must be paid weekly in order to retain space. Children must fully comply with the Participant Code of Conduct to continue enrollment. Non-compliance will result in immediate termination of services. Children must be fully toilet trained. One-week advance notice of discontinuation of program is required. The final day of those wishing to discontinue programming will be at the end of a completed week (Friday). A late pick up fee of $1.00 per minute past 6:00pm will be charged to families picking up late. Excessive late pick-ups can result in termination of care. All fees are nonrefundable and non-transferrable. JCPRD Programs do not provide drop-in care for occasional care needs.

6. FEE PAYMENT

Weekly fees are due on Fridays, in advance of care, according to the Payment Schedule (see page 9). Fees must be paid in the form of automatic recurring payments or by DCF Vision Card (see www.dcf.ks.gov for more information). Credit/Debit cards of Mastercard, Discover, or Visa are accepted for both recurring payments and fees not covered by DCF Vision Card. A card or bank account must be set for automatic payment on each account. Multiple cards or bank accounts can be used if contact information is provided for each payer. A $30.00 fee will be assessed for declined credit/debit card payments. All fees are nonrefundable and non-transferrable, with the exception of state and federal subsidies.

7. ABSENCES/DAILY SIGN IN/SIGN OUT

Parents must notify center staff any time a child will be absent from the program by 9am. Parents must be present to sign their children into the program in the mornings and out of the program upon pick-up. A photo ID may be requested by staff at any time for the safety of our participants.

8. CHILD RELEASE

All individuals authorized to pick up children must be at least 16 years old and listed in advance on the personal data sheet. Until all authorized parties are known to the staff, photo identification will be required at the time of pick up. State law prohibits the release of children to parents and other authorized adults who appear to be impaired by drugs or alcohol. Any existing court orders barring parent contact, visitation, and child release must be on file at the center to support law enforcement interventions.

9. EMERGENCY CLOSING

Natural disasters and utility outages can result in emergency closure of the program. No alternate care location will be available in the event of emergency closures. Your director will notify you of the closure and again when care can be resumed. Utility outages or any other emergency evacuation of children during the day will result in the cancellation of the center until the facility is reopened for regularly scheduled programming. Snow day care is available for pre-registered families at our inclement weather locations (TBD annually). We encourage families to visit our website and sign up for alert notifications via text or e-mail by clicking on the "Sign Up" button. We follow the Shawnee Mission School District inclement weather closures.

10. DRESS FOR SCHOOL

Prepare your child for an enjoyable day at the Center by dressing him/her in comfortable clothing and outerwear appropriate for indoor/outdoor play. Durable play clothes and sturdy shoes are appropriate. Keep a change of seasonal clothing at the center and label all clothing. Avoid sending children in their best clothing, since even while wearing paint shirts, children often get paint on clothing. Also, remember to dress your child for the weather, as a portion of the day (120 minutes daily) will be outside when possible. During the Spring and Fall months make sure you send a light jacket with your child daily or dress them in layers for the cool mornings and warm afternoons. Have your child wear their winter coat, hat, gloves/mittens, and scarf during the winter as we do go outside for daily playtime and fresh air unless there is a wind chill of 20 degrees or lower. On snowy days, please send your child to school with proper snow play clothing as we may go outside to build a snowman or sled (snow pants, boots, etc.)

11. PARENT COMMUNICATION

Families receive information from the center through newsletters, dry erase bulletins, notes home, e-mail, telephone, and informal and formal conferencing as well as JCPRD Alerts. To sign up for alerts, go to www.jcprdkids.com and click on the Sign-Up button. Parents are encouraged to contact staff with any issue, concern and/or suggestion regarding their child or the program. Your views are valued and appreciated and guide our efforts toward continuous improvement. Any specialist working with your child is also strongly encouraged to become part of the center communication network.

12. PARENT CONDUCT

Our goal is to facilitate productive communication to aid in the success of each child and to maintain a safe environment for all. Parents must demonstrate civility, self-control, and socially acceptable behavior when interacting with JCPRD employees, participants, and their families. Kansas state law prohibits parents from disciplining and/or reprimanding other participants. Discriminatory statements or behaviors that are based on race, religion, disability, sex or gender will not be tolerated. Profanity, threats, insults, harassment, suggestive remarks, intimidation, physical crowding, yelling, and/or contact will result in the immediate contact of law enforcement. Failure to observe appropriate conduct will result in permanent expulsion from the program.

13. FOOD SERVICE

We provide a nutritious AM/PM snack daily. Fresh/Frozen fruits and vegetables, whole grains and healthy proteins and dairy are offered. Families will pack a healthy sack lunch for their child daily or set up a lunch account through the school office to purchase hot school lunches. We encourage children to taste foods they do not like but do not like or are new to them. Be sure to make us aware of any special dietary needs and/or food allergies. We do gently encourage children to try fruits and vegetables each day.

14. PERSONAL BELONGINGS

Label all personal belongings such as backpacks, coats, hats and gloves. Toys, video games, cell phones, iPods/iPads, Nooks, and any other electronic devices are prohibited. The program is not responsible for loss, theft or breakage of personal belongings.

15. QUIET TIME

A period of quiet time will be offered to the children in the morning and afternoon. Children will participate in quiet activities during this time in the classroom or can choose to sit and look at books. This is not a nap time.

16. DISCIPLINE POLICY

Discipline procedures shall be of a positive nature and shall not include any form of corporal punishment, verbal abuse, physical restraint, confinement, threats, humiliation, forcing or withholding of food, or fear tactics. Parents will be notified of any inappropriate behavior and will be advised of steps taken in eliminating the unacceptable behavior. Center based care does not meet the needs of every child. All children enrolled must observe the Participant Code of Conduct while attending the program.

17. PARTICIPANT CODE OF CONDUCT

Participation in the program is a privilege, not a right. The ability of each participant to consistently practice positive life skills is essential to on-going enrollment. The following set of non-negotiable standards for participation is designed to allow participants to self-regulate behavior. Respect the right of others to courtesy and personal space. Manage anger in appropriate ways. Respect and respond to adult authority. Accept differences among the group. Accept responsibility for own actions. These are reasonable expectations for any child participating in a group care setting. The actions of each individual influence the quality of participation for the entire group. Our goal is to facilitate successful participation for each child through the joint understanding, support, and practice of these positive life skills.

18. DISCIPLINE PRACTICES

Children at the Center are introduced to a set of simple, realistic, understandable, and positive rules that are consistently observed. These expectations serve as the foundation for helping children learn to self-manage behavior. Teachers assist children in self-management through reminders, redirection, and discussions about consequences. When children consciously make a choice to ignore expectations, consequences in line with the behavior will follow. Interventions and consequences focus on as little teacher intervention as possible. This allows children to be internally motivated in developing appropriate behaviors.

Typical behavior interventions are as follows:

- Often closer teacher proximity and eye contact are all children need to self-correct.
- On the other occasions a reminder of the rule is effective.
- Sometimes teachers and children discuss inappropriate behaviors and more acceptable alternatives.
- In some situations, children are redirected to a solitary activity for a brief period of time.
- More serious behavior issues require a parent/teacher conference to develop an action plan for improvement.

Behaviors which jeopardize the safety and welfare of others can result in termination of care.

19. Safe Environment Policy

JCPRD strives to maintain a safe, healthy, and secure environment for children and youth under JCPRD's care and supervision. To protect the safety, health, and welfare of youth and staff in the childcare program and school, JCPRD staff may conduct a search and may seize any illegal, unauthorized, or contraband materials or items discovered.

The program will not allow any form of violent play, including the use of toys as weapons, gesturing in an aggressive manner, or depicting violence in drawings or any other expressive form. Possession of weapons, fashioned or real, is prohibited and grounds for immediate expulsion. Statements by anyone that threaten violent action will be regarded as real and result in immediate contact of parents and law enforcement if appropriate.

20. PARENT VISITATION AND INVOLVEMENT

Our program has an "open door" policy on parent visitation. Parents are also encouraged to become actively involved in the center by chaperoning field trips, donating to classroom celebrations, reading to the children, and/or sharing your personal hobbies, talents and professional skills. Contact the director to express your interest and offer suggestions on program activities. We invite you to drop in unannounced, at any time.

21. COMMUNICABLE DISEASE/ILLNESS

Participants shall not be in attendance when suffering from any communicable disease. Guidelines as determined by the Johnson County Health Department will be observed. The Program Director shall exercise his/her discretion in determining if a child seems well enough to resume normal participation. Families must report to the Program Director any exposure to communicable disease.

22. SICK CHILD READMISSION POLICY

Any child taking a prescribed antibiotic may return to the school within 24 hours providing that fever is no longer present, and the child feels rested enough to resume normal participation. Staff shall exercise their discretion in determining if a child seems rested enough to resume normal participation. To help minimize exposure and prevent the spread of illness, we follow the Johnson County Health Department's exclusion recommendations. We reserve the right to send a child home upon arrival if they appear to be ill. The Johnson County Health department recommends that children shall be excluded from class according to their Disease and Symptom Exclusion Recommendations/Regulations which can be found on our webpage and posted in our classroom.

23. CHRONIC HEALTH/SPECIAL CARE NEEDS

Written physician orders as well as a parent/staff pre-attendance meeting will be required to assure that chronic health conditions and any special care needs can be accommodated within the program.

24. PRESCRIPTION/NON-PRESCRIPTION MEDICATIONS

If your child is taking any prescription/non-prescription drugs while in attendance, these medications must be sent to the program director in their original containers and must have RX information affixed. All medications must be sent in daily dosages. Signed permission for administration of these medications must accompany them. Medication cannot be administered without signed parental consent.

25. MEDICAL INSURANCE

During the course of normal participation, accidents can and do happen. Therefore, it is important that parents carry medical insurance for expenses that result from injury. The District does not carry medical insurance for program participants. Make sure your health insurance policy name and number are recorded on the Authorization for Emergency Medical Care form. In urgent care situations, staff will attempt to contact parents for child pick up and follow up medical treatment.

In emergency care situations, children will be transported by ambulance to the nearest hospital. Be sure all of your child's records are up to date to assist us in effectively responding to emergencies.

26. MANDATED REPORTERS

JCPRD staff are required by KDHE to immediately report any evidence of suspected child abuse or neglect to DCF or to local law enforcement agencies.

27. FIELD TRIPS/TRANSPORTATION

Transportation will be provided by a local bus company or a District van. Seat belts on leased busses will be provided when available. Signed permission slips are required. Weather conditions may necessitate cancellation of field trips. JCPRD covers field trip admission expenses, including bus service.

28. DONATIONS/FUND RAISERS

New toys and equipment are purchased for the Center through parent fees. Parent participation throughout the year is encouraged to make these events successful and to continually improve the quality of the program. Additional support can be provided through consumable goods such as: books, toys, paper items and art supplies.

29. BIRTHDAYS/CELEBRATIONS

Birthday treats are welcome at the Center with advance notice given to the Director. When we celebrate birthdays, we ask that you send in your child's favorite book to share with his/her friends during preschool. A healthy treat from home is welcome (ie: fresh/dried fruit, rice cakes, string cheese, pretzels, mini wraps, cheese & crackers, or another healthy snack idea). Bringing invitations to home parties is not allowed at school. For classroom holiday celebrations, staff will post a list of healthy suggested donations to send in for these events.

30. SCREEN TIME

We are a screen free center. TV and videos will not be shown in our program except for occasional education uses.

31. CHILDREN'S SERVICES PHOTO POLICY

Unauthorized distribution or release of photos of children and/or staff engaged in Johnson County Park & Recreation District sponsored activities is expressly prohibited without written consent of all parties represented. The policy extends to traditional photo prints and negatives, CDs, digital memory cards, electronic transmittals via email or through the web, and images captured on camera phones. Photos of participants are strictly limited to program use or other JCPRD publications with a signed waiver. Failure to observe this policy may result in termination of childcare.

32. EMPLOYEE/PATRON RELATIONSHIPS

District Policy 402-01(B)(24) and the JCPRD Code of Ethics prohibit JCPRD staff from entering into personal employment arrangements with program participants and their families.

33. FAMILY SUPPORT AND COMMUNITY RESOURCES

The director is always available to help families access community resources designed to support and strengthen families. Your director can provide information on application for DCF childcare subsidy and other community resources. The following websites also provide excellent and current information on a variety of family centered topics that can be accessed on the privacy of office or home. # Tips for A Successful Early Childhood Learning Experience

THE VALUE OF WORK TIME ACTIVITIES

PLAY IS LEARNING

1. When the child works in the block area, he/she:

- Learns to use imagination to create something from his or her own thinking.
- Has the satisfaction of being able to make something?
- Learns about sizes and shapes, weights and balances, height and depth, smoothness, roundness, roughness, and volume.
- Is exercising his/her body.
- May be learning to play with others.
- Learns to communicate ideas through language when discussing similarities and differences.
- Learns to solve problems and make decisions.
- Creates patterns when building.
- Represents personal experiences through role play and pretending.

2. When the child works in the art area, he/she:

- Is more concerned with the process than with the finished product. This is as it should be for this state of development.
- Learns about colors and how to use them.
- Learns to use imagination and transfers ideas to paper.
- Gets emotional satisfaction from being able to express himself/herself.
- Learns how to use small muscle coordination to handle a brush.
- Learns to make choices and decisions.
- Increases language ability by talking about his/her creation.
- Learns how to use materials like scissors, paste, tape, and staples.
- Learns how to use imagination to make the kind of creation in mind. Once again the process, not the finished product, is important to him/her.
- Learns about shapes, sizes, colors, and textures.

3. When the child plays in the housekeeping area, he/she:

- Learns what the roles of mothers, fathers, and children are.
- Understands what it feels like to play at being someone else.
- Learns how to use imagination.
- Learns to cooperate with other children.
- Increases his/her ability to communicate with others about personally meaningful experiences.
- Imitates and describes sounds from the environment.
- Pantomimes actions such as cooking and vacuuming.

4. When the child plays in the outdoor area he/she:

- Learns how to use his/her body effectively.
- Experiences joy in achieving a skill.
- Has fun and relaxation to be found in bodily movement.
- Learns the limitations of his/her body.
- Learns safety and caution.
- Learns to take turns and to share a piece of equipment.

- Develops vocabulary words such as “over” and “under”.
- Gains experience using large muscles.
- Represents experiences through dramatic play.
- Experiences the direction of movement of things and people.
- Observes and describes weather changes.
- Explores the natural environment.

5. When the child works in the sand and water area, he/she:

- Finds it soothing to bury his/her hands in sand or pour water in and out of cups.
- Is able to relax with this media and center attention on a task.
- Has an opportunity to play alone or with one other child and not have to compete with other children as with some activities.
- Has a great opportunity to learn about size and measurement by experimenting with measuring spoons, cups and different size containers.
- Learns which kinds of things float and sink in water.
- Is not concerned with a final product so he/she does not find it frustrating.
- Develops vocabulary words such as “empty” and “full”.
- Explores actively the attributes and functions of materials with all of the senses.
- Transforms and combines materials.
- Learns to compare quantities.

6. When the child works with manipulatives, he/she:

- Has an opportunity to work alone or together with other children.
- Gains satisfaction in completing a puzzle or game and builds self-confidence.
- Has an opportunity to improve eye-hand coordination.
- Distinguishes and describes shapes.
- Fits things together and takes them apart.
- Develops an awareness of symmetry in one’s own representations.
- Compares and sorts objects into groups.
- Uses and describes something in many different ways.
- Recognizes and creates patterns.
- Compares numbers and amounts.

7. When the child listens to stories or looks at books, he/she:

- Learns to listen.
- Has an opportunity to increase vocabulary by hearing new words read.
- Learns about different concepts, people, and places.
- Learns to enjoy books and reading.
- Visualizes the things he/she is hearing about.
- Begins telling stories from pictures and books, in an orderly sequence.
- Begins hearing likenesses and differences in words.
- Recalls information that is seen and heard.
- Sees adults reading and enjoying stories.
- Learns to recognize the name of common objects, places, and actions.
- Develops book awareness concepts such as following pictures and print from left to right and top to bottom.
- Learns to handle books carefully.

8. When the child cooks he/she:

- Learns to follow directions.
- Stimulates and uses all five senses.
- Learns to recognize colors, shapes, and different kinds of foods and kitchen utensils.
- Has an opportunity to use different kinds of tools and equipment to improve small muscle coordination.
- Develops vocabulary with such words as “half” and “whole”.
- Observes and describes transformations.
- Measures ingredients.
- Compares numbers and amounts.
- Predicts events.
- Recognizes objects by taste, touch, and smell.
- Describes relations among events and ideas
- Distinguishes between “some” and “all”.
- Observes the clocks used to denote the passage of time.
- Tastes new foods.

Children will not remember you for the material things you provide, but for the feeling that you cherish them.

DEVELOPMENTALLY APPROPRIATE PRACTICE

Johnson County Park and Recreation District program staff support a developmental approach to curriculum design. Developmentally appropriate practice is based on knowledge about how children develop and learn. Developmentally appropriate programs provide a safe and nurturing environment that promotes the physical, social, emotional, aesthetic, intellectual, and language development of each child while being sensitive to the needs and preferences of families.

Developmentally appropriate practice requires that teachers integrate the many dimensions of their knowledge base. They must know about child development and the implications of this knowledge for how to teach the content of the curriculum – what to teach and when – how to assess what children have learned, and how to adapt curriculum and instruction to children’s individual strengths, needs, and interests. Further, they must know the particular children they teach and their families and be knowledgeable as well about the social and cultural context.

Nationally acclaimed early childhood educator Lillian Katz states, “In a developmental approach to curriculum design, decisions about what should be learned and how it would best be learned depend on what we know of the learner’s developmental status and our understanding of the relationships between early experience and subsequent development.” Learn more about developmentally appropriate practice, national accreditation and other advances in early childhood care and education, by visiting the National Association for the Education of Young Children web site at <http://www.naeyc.org>.

CURRICULUM

Early childhood care and education has developed rapidly over the last decade. Quality early childhood centers have given up the pen and paper worksheets, product-based art projects and whole group classroom formats of the past.

Educators now understand that children's play is purposeful and is at the core of their learning. Teachers maximize learning potential by serving as facilitators of the play environment. Your child's day at our center will be focused on hands-on activity that allows children to experience their environment in their own unique way. Teachers observe, interact, and seize those teachable moments that enrich the play experience.

Through both structured and unstructured activities, children experience a positive, rich, and stimulating curriculum, that considers each child's overall development. An individualized approach to instruction accommodates the various maturation levels and demonstrates respect for each child's self-worth and competence.

We have found that a multiple learning center-based approach best allows children to explore, discover, and learn according to their individual perspective. Through learning centers children feel comfortable and confident in exploring the classroom at their own pace. As children move through the learning centers, they can practice skills, pursue topics of special interest, expand problem-solving abilities, and interact with other students within the centers.

PARENT INVOLVEMENT AND COMMUNICATION

Family involvement and visitation at the Center is encouraged. Please share any ideas you have about curriculum; we welcome the opportunity to plan with you. You are invited to share with us any special interests, or just drop by to observe. The children love visitors and are especially pleased when the visitor is a member of their family.

You will be informed of Center happenings through the bulletin board, e-mails, newsletters, informal conversations with teachers, and items placed in your children's cubbies. Read everything that comes home from the Center to have a clear picture of our many activities. Parents are encouraged to share personal information that may be affecting your child. Please avoid talking to teachers while your child is present. Cue us to the need for a private conversation, and we will involve your child in an activity elsewhere in the room.

THE FAMILY-STAFF RELATIONSHIP

All families experience mixed emotions when enrolling their child in a care setting outside the family home. Often parents are concerned that the bond between themselves and their child will be weakened or undermined through the involvement of a third-party caregiver. Our staff understand that parents are the most important persons in a child's life. We believe our role is to support, strengthen, and nurture your family. Every step of the way we look to you for guidance on how to build on the foundation you have so lovingly provided your child. Same page thinking regarding your child can be achieved only through open and honest communication. Please share with us anything that even mildly concerns you. Your expectations, needs, and insights will allow us to be good stewards of your child's wholesome growth and development, during the part of the day they spend away from home.

ADJUSTING TO THE NEW ROUTINE

The first day at the Center is a very exciting and anxious time for both children and parents. Prepare for this new experience in the following ways. Prior to attending, visit the Center together, spend some time exploring the surroundings, and interact with both children and teachers. When at home, discuss in a positive and happy way all the things your child will be doing during their time at the center (playing, eating, resting, etc.). Read to your child about the upcoming early childhood experience. There are many excellent books available on this topic through the library and local bookstores.

On the evening before your child first attends, organize their clothing and supplies. Include your child in this process. Budget some extra time for yourself, both in the morning and evening on the first day. Take your time in arriving at the Center and be prepared to stay a few minutes as your child checks in. When you leave your child, be cheerful, give them a quick kiss and a reassuring word. Lingering goodbyes usually cause anxiety for the child. Feel free to phone us to hear how your child is doing. At the close of the day, visit with Center staff, and if your child seems willing, invite them to show you around.

Some children adjust to the new situation right away, others need more time to feel comfortable at the Center. Express your insights on adjustment issues to center staff. Parents and teachers working together in a mutually supportive role, will make your child's transition to the center as smooth as possible.
